Continuation of 3. NOTE: The proposed amendments to the claims would change the scope of the claims, thus necessitating additional consideration and/or search. Furthermore, the subject matter of new claim 13 does not appear to be fully supported by the original disclosure, thus appearing to constitute new matter.

Continuation of 5. Applicant's reply has overcome the following rejection(s): the rejection of the claims based on new matter under 35 USC 112, first paragraph, as cited in the previous Office action. Note, however, that the proposed amendments would introduce other new matter, as noted previously above .

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant's arguments are based appear to be generally based on an overly narrow interpretation of both the claims and the applied prior art of record..

Continuation of 13. Other: Applicant's proposed amendment to the abstract would overcome the objections to the abstract as cited in the previous Office action.
